Reach your target group easily

In the magazine Gluteeniton elämä, your advertisement gets noticed. According to our latest survey, as many as 62 % of our readers always read the advertisements and 38 % occasionally. The advertisements for new gluten-free products are of a particular interest. Readers pick out new products and services from the advertisements to incorporate in their daily lives. They also actively request products advertised in the magazine to be included in the selections of their local shops. So advertising in the magazine pays off!

"The best thing about the magazine is information about new products"

In the first issue of the year, we focus on the membership benefits of the Finnish Coeliac Society. Topics in the second issue are glutenfree products, summer and barbeque. The Gluten-free products 2023 Guide is also published to the members as an insert in this issue. The third issue is all about Coeliac Awareness Week Theme; how to shrink the gluten-free food bill and manage the expenses of healthy diet. Magazine number 4 is a special issue of the nationwide Lautasella 2023 Gluten-free Expo in Helsinki. The fifth issue prepares us for the winter festivities, Christmas holiday season and New Year.
